NOW THEREFORE:

The Union and the Employer mutually agree as follows:

- 1.01 It is the intent and purpose of the parties to this Agreement, which has been negotiated and entered into in good faith:
- a) to recognize mutually the respective rights, responsibilities and functions of the parties hereto;

 - e) and generally, through the full and fair administration of all terms and provisions contained herein, to develop and achieve a relationship among the Union, the Employer, and the employees which will be conducive to their mutual well-being.
- 1.02 The omission of specific mention in this Agreement of existing rights and privileges established or recognized by the Employer shall not be construed to deprive employees of such rights and privileges.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent of all employees in the bargaining unit as defined in Article 2.02.
- 2.02 This Agreement covers all employees of PB Distribution Inc. at all locations in British Columbia and as classified in Schedule “A”, except supervisors, office staff, sales staff and contractors.
- 2.03 Except in cases of emergency or for training, retraining, meeting deadlines and instructional purposes etc., non-working foreman, supervisors and other non-bargaining unit (employees) personnel shall not normally perform work included in work or job classifications under this Agreement and normally performed by members of the bargaining unit.
- 2.04 There shall be no revision, amendment or alteration of the bargaining unit as defined herein, or of any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, except by mutual agreement in writing of the parties. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no classification of work or jobs may be removed from the bargaining unit except by mutual agreement in writing of the parties.
- 2.05 The Employer agrees that the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, Local 247 and its duly appointed Representatives are authorized to act on behalf of the Union for the purpose of supervising, administering and negotiating the terms and conditions of this Agreement and all matters related thereto. Union representatives shall notify the Employer when entering the premises.

The Union recognizes that it is the exclusive right of the Employer to manage its business and to direct the work force, and establish and maintain reasonable rules and regulations governing its operations as it sees fit, including the right to:

- a) the right to hire and determine the ability of employees, including selecting the qualifications, parameters and standards for the basis of selection and the number of employees required;
- b) the right to take such other measures as management may determine to be necessary for the orderly and efficient operation of the business;
- c) the right to direct, transfer, promote, suspend and discharge employees provided that such actions are consistent with the purpose and terms of this Agreement and provided that a claim by any employee that he has been disciplined or discharged without just cause will be subject to the Grievance procedure as outlined in Article 19;

alcohol policies, work rules and attendance regulations;

- e) the right to establish, maintain and change without notice, standards of quality of work and levels of efficiency;
- f) the right to determine the products to be purchased, handled, manufactured and sold, including means, methods, processes, procedures and schedules;
- g) the right to introduce new or different production methods, equipment, materials or facilities, including any automation and any other technology that the Employer may want to use;
- h) the right to introduce standards and measures to determine the ability of employees to perform the work including but not limited to physical capability evaluations, and written examinations;
- i) the right to determine the number, location and relocation of its facilities and operations and the combining or splitting up of facilities, operations and equipment in whole or in part;
- j) the right to extend, limit, curtail, transfer, reduce or discontinue its operations in whole or in part; and

- k) all other prerogatives and responsibilities inherent in management of the business except those, which are clearly relinquished by the specific terms of this Agreement.
- l) the right to utilize temporary labour agencies to ensure that the business can operate efficiently. This will only be done after additional work including overtime has been offered, by seniority, to employees that have the qualifications to perform the work.

The Employer reserves the right to contract out, transfer or assign, in whole or in part, any of the operations, procedures or services performed by the Employees to any person or firm for classifications not covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – UNION REPRESENTATION

3.01 For the purpose of representation with the Employer, the Union shall function and be recognized as follows:

- a) The Union has the right to appoint or elect Stewards. The Stewards are representatives of the employees in certain matters pertaining to this Agreement, including the processing of grievances.
- b) UFCW 247 Representatives are representatives of the employees, in all matters pertaining to this Agreement, particularly for the purpose of processing grievances, negotiating amendments to or renewals of this Agreement and enforcing the employees collective bargaining rights and any other rights under this agreement and under the law.

- c) Upon at least two weeks' notice from the Union, the Employer may grant leaves of absence without pay for up to seven (7) days per year to an employee elected or appointed to represent the Union for the purpose of attending Union and related activities. The leave of absence shall not interfere with normal operations of the Employer and shall be limited to a maximum of two (2) people per facility. The employee(s) shall have the option to continue all benefits, provided that the employee pays the entire cost of maintaining benefits during the period of absence.

Leaves of absences for which the Employer is reimbursed by the Union will be considered as time worked for a maximum of seven (7) days each calendar year for the employee affected.

Negotiations will be considered as time worked.

3.02 The Union agrees to notify the Employer in writing of the names of its officials and the effective dates of their appointments.

3.03 Stewards and other Union Officers will not absent themselves from their work to deal with grievances without first obtaining permission of the Employer. Permission will not be unreasonably withheld, but where such meetings exceed ten (10) minutes they shall be scheduled whenever possible during rest and meal periods, or outside working hours. Disciplined employees instructed to leave the premises shall be permitted to meet with a Steward prior to leaving the premises.

3.04 The Union has the right to appoint or elect members to a Negotiating Committee.

3.05 The Employer may meet periodically with the employees for the purpose of discussing any matters of mutual interest or concern to the Employer, the Union and the employees. A UFCW 247 Representative may attend such meetings.

3.06 There shall be no Union activity on Employer's time or premises except as provided for in Article 3 and Article 5.07, or unless otherwise authorized by management.

ARTICLE 4 – STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

4.01 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further Agreement are being held, the Union will not permit or encourage any strike, slowdown, or any stoppage of work, or otherwise restrict or interfere with the Employer's operation through its members.

The Union further agrees that any employee who participates in or encourages any such action will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge. The term “slow down” means the wilful restriction or reduction of operations or production by an employee or the Union which is within the reasonable control of the employee or the Union.

4.02 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further Agreement are being held, the Employer will not engage in any lockout of its employees or deliberately restrict or reduce the hours of work or deliberately send employees home when such action is not warranted by the workload.

4.03 If Article 4.01 is violated, the Employer may institute expedited arbitration proceedings by delivering written notice to the Union. The written notice will include the names of at least three Arbitrators acceptable to management. The Union must immediately select an Arbitrator from the list. If an Arbitrator has not been agreed upon within twenty-four (24) hours of delivery of the notice, the Employer may immediately request that the Minister of Labour appoint an Arbitrator. The Arbitrator will determine the time and place of the hearing, provide notice to the parties and hold the hearing within twenty-four (24) hours of their appointment. The failure of either party or any witness to attend the hearing, as scheduled and noticed by the Arbitrator, must not delay the hearing and the Arbitrator may proceed to take evidence and issue an award and order as though such party or witness were present. The sole issue at the hearing is whether a violation of Article 4.01 of the Agreement has occurred or is occurring, and the Arbitrator must not consider any matter justifying, explaining or mitigating the violation.

If the Arbitrator finds that a violation of Article 4.01 of this Agreement is occurring or has occurred, the Arbitrator must issue a cease and desist order with respect to the violation. The Arbitrator's written award and order must be issued within twenty-four (24) hours after the close of the hearing. The Arbitrator's award and order are final and binding on the Employer and the Union.

4.04 The Union and the Employer agree that when negotiations for a Collective Agreement break down or stall, and the parties have exhausted all avenues to bring negotiations to a settlement by themselves, then they will assign an Arbitrator to settle any outstanding issues of the Collective Agreement that shall be binding on the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 5 – EMPLOYMENT POLICY AND UNION MEMBERSHIP

5.01 The Union and the Employer will cooperate in maintaining a desirable and competent labour force.

5.02 The Employer has the right to hire new employees as needed, provided that no new employee(s) will be hired while there are employees on lay-off available who are qualified to do the work.

5.03 New employees will be required to serve a probationary period of six hundred and eighty (680) hours of work, and thereafter shall attain regular employment status, provided such service is satisfactory to the Employer. Hours worked will include regular hours and overtime hours calculated as straight time. Their respective seniority shall be dated back to the date of the beginning of employment.

5.04 The Employer shall provide the union with all necessary information regarding insurance and benefit plans, job postings and awards, terminations and hirings. The name, social insurance number, address, date of hire and job status of new employees shall be provided to the Union on a monthly basis. A list of employees, showing their names ranked according to seniority, job status and rate, shall be forwarded to the Union upon request.

It is the responsibility of each employee to notify the Employer in writing of any and all necessary status changes, address and phone number changes. Failure to do so will relieve the Employer of any responsibilities it may have under this Agreement regarding layoffs, recalls, and schedule changes.

5.05 Every employee who is now or hereafter becomes a member of the Union shall maintain their membership in the Union as a condition of their employment, and every new employee whose employment commences hereafter, shall, within forty (40) hours after the commencement of their employment, apply for and maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment.

5.06 Probationary employees are covered by the Agreement, except those provisions which specifically exclude such employees.

ARTICLE 6 – CHECKOFF

6.01 All employees shall, as a condition of employment, become and maintain active membership, as provided in the Constitution and bylaws of the Local Union. It is agreed that the Employer will have employees complete a Union membership application form within seven (7) days upon being employed and forward immediately to the Union office fully completed and signed.

6.02 The employer agrees to provide each new employee at the time of employment, with material outlining to the employee, their responsibility in regard to Union Membership as supplied by the Union.

6.03 It is the responsibility of the employee to maintain active membership as outlined in the International Constitution and the Local Union bylaws.

6.04 No employee shall be discharged, disciplined or discriminated against for any lawful Union activity, or for serving on a Union committee or for reporting to the Union the violation of any provisions of this Agreement. Instances of alleged violation of the foregoing will be brought to the attention of Distribution Centre Manager, and a full investigation by the parties will follow. The above will be subject to the grievance procedure. Any alleged harassment will be dealt with by the Company.

6.05 The Employer agrees to automatically deduct from the wages of each employee covered by this Agreement, initiation fees, Union dues and assessments as may be adopted and designated by the Union. In the event of a change, the Union will give the Employer at least three (3) weeks prior notice of the effective date change or deduction as the case may be.

Such Union dues deducted shall be indicated on the employee's T-4.

6.06 The Employer shall remit no later than fifteen (15) days after the preceding accounting period:

- a) monies deducted from the wages of its employees for Union initiation, fees, dues, assessments and hours paid;
- b) a statement showing each employee's name, employee number and social insurance number,

If an employee is transferred to a lower paid position on a job posting or at the Employee's request, the lower rate of pay shall apply immediately.

The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not be construed as guaranteeing to any employee any number of hours of work per day or per week.

For those Employees who work the 3 X 12 hour shift, hours worked will be factored by a ratio of 1.11 and will have the equivalent of forty (40) hours for all articles of the Collective Agreement.

- 8.02 An Employee who works hours in excess of their regular working day as defined in Article 8.01, will be paid at the rate of one and one-half times (1½x) their regular hourly rate of pay for the first three (3) hours of overtime in a day and two times (2x) their regular hourly rate thereafter.

- f) is absent without leave for three (3) working days unless the employee was unable to notify the Employer.

11.04 a) When a reduction of the workforce is inevitable, the Employer shall be guided by the following considerations:

- 1) Probationary employees shall be laid off first.

- 2) Part-time employees shall be laid off second.
- 3) Ability and qualifications to perform the work will be used to determine who is laid off next.
- 4) If the ability and qualifications of two (2) or more employees are relatively equal, then seniority shall prevail.

The above considerations shall guide the Employer when employees on layoff are recalled.

This does not apply where discrimination is justified on the basis of a bona fide occupation requirement.

The parties agree that all employees are entitled to enjoy a work environment free from all forms of discrimination, including sexual harassment.

Allegations of discrimination shall be dealt with confidentially.

The parties recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from sexual and personal harassment. Any employee guilty of sexual or personal harassment will be subject to immediate termination of employment for cause.

Sexual harassment means any sexually offensive actions or behaviour which is unsolicited, one-sided and coercive. Personal harassment means any discriminatory behaviour which takes place at or is related to the workplace, which denies an individual their dignity and respect or affects their job security by creating an intimidating, offensive, embarrassing or humiliating work environment. Personal harassment includes discrimination because of race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, disability, political affiliation, Union membership and participation in lawful activities and preventing by any means, the exercise of any right conferred under the Collective Agreement or any applicable law of Canada and its Provinces. victim of sexual or personal harassment may initiate a complaint in writing to an Employer representative.

The Employer shall investigate the complaint and submit a report to the D.C. Manager within seven (7) days from receipt of complaint. A longer period of time may be permitted with the mutual consent of the person filing the complaint. Within three (3) days from the receipt of the investigation report the D.C. Manager shall take actions to resolve the matter.

The alleged offender shall be given notice of the substance of the complaint and will be given the opportunity to meet with the Employer and the Union representative to present their version of the events.

The complaint, the reply of the alleged offender and any information and records pertaining to the case will be kept confidential. All written records concerning harassment complaints will be kept in a confidential file under the exclusive jurisdiction of the D.C. Manager.

The D.C. Manager may take interim measures to separate the Employees concerned or any other interim action pending determination of the complaint, if it is deemed necessary.

If the complaint is of a frivolous, vindictive or vexatious nature, then appropriate action may be taken against the complainant up to and including dismissal.

ARTICLE 24 – WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

24.01 The Employer accepts an obligation to provide a healthy, safe work environment. The Employer and Union are committed to providing a violence-free environment and recognizes that workplace violence is a health and safety issue.

Violence is defined as an act of aggression, verbal profanity, verbal or physical assaults, or threats in a workplace which may involve, but are not limited to name calling, threatening, swearing, hitting, biting, scratching, pinching, use of a weapon, sexual harassment, assault and battery, and wilful damage to the Employers property, customers property or an employee's personal property.

Acts of violence by employees, customers, or visitors will not be tolerated. An employee who is a victim of workplace violence will be treated with respect and consideration by the Employer.

All acts of violence must be reported to the D.C. Manager whether witnessed or experienced. It is essential that the Employer, the Union and the employee work in collaboration to recognize, manage and prevent acts of workplace violence.

If an employee feels they are a victim of violence or have observed a violent act in the work environment, it is recommended that the employee file a complaint with their supervisor, the D.C. Manager or Senior Level

Manager. Filing a complaint will allow the Employer to undertake an immediate investigation of the complaint and take whatever action, up to and including termination, if necessary, against the offending person.

The D.C. Manager shall investigate the complaint and submit a report to the Senior Management within seven (7) days from receipt of complaint. Within three (3) days from the receipt of the investigation report the D.C. Manager shall make recommendation to resolve the matter. The alleged offender shall be given notice of the substance of the complaint and will be given the opportunity to meet with the Employer and the Union representative to present their version of the events.

Any employee found to be guilty of workplace violence will be immediately disciplined up to and including dismissal for acts of violence, of verbal or physical assault, threats, hitting, biting, scratching, use of weapons, sexual harassment, assault and battery, and wilful damage of Employer and employee's property.

All complaints will be treated on a confidential basis. No disciplinary action will be taken against any employee filing a complaint.

The Employer is committed to trying to provide a safe work environment for all employees.

ARTICLE 25 – ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

25.01 The use of alcohol and drugs jeopardizes job safety and performance, as well as the well-being of employees.

Individuals abusing alcohol or drugs can create safety hazards for themselves, co-workers and the general public. Therefore, possession or use of alcohol and other intoxicants when on Employer's business or premises is prohibited. This includes:

- a) any use, possession, distribution or the offering for sale of intoxicants, equipment for drug use, or unprescribed drugs for which a prescription is illegally acquired;
- b) any possession or consumption of alcohol or other intoxicants during working hours or on the Employers premises.

Employees who appear to be impaired by alcohol or drugs, whether consumed at work or prior to work, will immediately be removed from the workplace. If the employee is impaired, the Employer will offer to provide transportation to the employee's residence or the nearest point of public transportation.

25.02 The Employer may take disciplinary action against an employee under the following circumstances:

- a) the employee is in possession of alcohol, other intoxicants or equipment used for drugs; or

b) the employee has been at work under the influence of alcohol, or other intoxicants.

25.03 The Employer may discipline the employee by taking one or more of the following courses of action:

- a) suspension of the employee, with or without pay;
- b) immediate dismissal for cause; or
- c) referral on humanitarian grounds to an approved program for rehabilitation and treatment of alcohol or drug abuse.

ARTICLE 26 – THEFT

26.01 Employees are not permitted to remove any of the Employers' or its Customers' property from the premises or consume any of the Employers' or its Customers' property while on the premises, or to remove any fellow employee's property.

26.02 Any employee caught removing or consuming any items will be dismissed with just cause.
