TERM OF AGREEMENT

November 12, 2023 to November 11, 2029

Dear Union Member:

You are holding one of the most important documents you will receive at your job: your union Collective Agreement.

This document is a contract between your employer and our union that sets out the workplace rights and terms and conditions of employment for all union members at your workplace.

Every part of this agreement was negotiated with your employer by a bargaining committee comprised of your coworkers and fellow union members.

This document ensures you have better conditions than those found in non-union workplaces. Together, with engaged and empowered union members, we are committed to improving it at every opportunity.

Please help us give meaning to this agreement by reading it, asking questions about the rights it contains, and working with us to enforce it.

If you think there may be a violation of this agreement at your workplace, you have a legal right to contact a Shop Steward or Union Representative for help.

Help us build a stronger union – your union.

In Solidarity,

DAN GOODMAN
President

CATHY SHANNON
Secretary-Treasurer

It is agreed that employees will continue to acquire and exercise seniority on a departmental basis (grocery-produce, bakery, meat, deli) within the bargaining unit basis, except in the event of lay-off and re-employment, in which case employees shall exercise seniority on a storewide bargaining unit basis. The name and number of departments may be changed by the Employer from time to time after providing employees and the Union thirty (30) days' notice. Due to business needs, full-time employees may be required to temporarily perform work outside of their department from time to time.

10.02 Regular full-time employees shall not attain seniority until they have completed a probationary period with the Employer. Such probationary period shall be ninety (90) days worked. However, should a probationary employee complete such service, their seniority will date back to the commencement of their continuous full-time employment.

- (b) Lay-off and re-employment shall be based on seniority, availability, qualifications and ability to perform the work.

10.04 Seniority lists for full-time employees shall be posted by the Employer semi-annually.

A copy will be provided to the Union upon request.

- 10.05

rare and exceptional circumstances) to the Employer;

- (e) fail to return to work after a recall from lay-off within seven (7) days after the delivery of notice of recall by registered mail;

- (i) use an approved leave of absence for reasons other than those specified.

10.07 The Owner agrees to recognize the accumulation of the seniority of an employee who is absent from work due to sickness, accident, pregnancy/parental leave as defined within the Employment Standards Act, Personal Emergency Leave and Family Medical Leave or Workers' Compensation upon their return to work.

10.08 In the event of a vacancy occurring for any full-time bargaining unit position, employees covered under Appendix "A" of this Agreement shall receive preference for such full-time positions provided they have the necessary seniority, availability, ability and qualifications to perform the work.

When a vacancy occurs in a full-time job, such vacancy shall be posted and remain posted for seven (7) calendar days on the Union Bulletin Board. Two (2) copies of all vacancies to be posted shall be given to the union steward (to post one if they choose in addition to the one posted by the Employer) at the time of the Posting and one copy to be provided to the Union upon request, at the time of the Posting.

The Employer further commits to meet with each employee who submits a resume and is not successful to review how the employee(s) may improve their qualifications to be better suited for such position in the future.

10.09 (a) Full-time employees who are laid off from full-time employment shall if they so desire, be placed on the part-time seniority list based on the length of their accumulated full-time and if applicable, part-time service with the Employer and shall be given preference for available part-time work in so far as that length of service entitles them.

Such employee shall be eligible for vacation entitlement based on that length of service. Such employee shall receive the lesser of their full-time hourly rate at the time of their layoff or the end rate of their part-time wage progression.

- (b) Full-time employees who voluntarily terminate from full-time employment shall be placed on the part-time seniority list based on the length of their accumulated full-time and if applicable part-time service with the Employer and shall be given preference for available part-time work in so far as that length of service entitles them.

Such employee shall be eligible for vacation entitlement based on that length of service. Such employee shall receive the lesser of their full-time hourly rate at the time of their layoff or the applicable part-time wage progression rate. Full-time hours will be credited on the part-time wage progression.

ARTICLE 11 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 11.01 Employees are expected to attend work regularly. When unable to attend, the Owner, or designate must be notified, as soon as it is reasonably possible, but in any event, not less than one (1) hour prior to the commencement of the scheduled shift of the employee, giving the reason why the employee is unable to attend, when they expect to return to work and how the Owner or designate can contact them relative to their absence.

11.02 The basic work week for full-time employees will consist of forty (40) hours per week, made up of five (5) days of eight (8) consecutive hours duration or four (4) days of ten (10) consecutive hours duration where permissible by law. The basic work week shall be worked Sunday through Saturday. Employees designated as Night Crew will receive a premium of seventy-five ($0.75) cents per hour. Night Crew will be scheduled between 8:00 p.m. and 9:00 a.m. For clarity, a Night Crew employee's entire shift will fall between these hours.

A full-time employee designated by the Employer to lead the night crew shall receive a premium of seventy-five ($0.75) cents per hour worked.

- 3) on a Night Crew which operates less than five (5) nights per week

It is understood that an employee so temporarily appointed shall be entitled to the premiums outlined in this article and Appendix "A", Article 2.07 and in addition shall receive a further seventy-five ($0.75) cents per hour as a premium for leading the night crew. This appointment and seventy-five ($0.75) cent per hour premium will be applied on a weekly basis only.

Any non-night crew full-time or part-time employee who works beyond 11:00 p.m. shall be paid a seventy-five ($0.75) cent per hour premium for all hours worked from 11:00 p.m. onward. The premium does not apply to employees who commence their work shift from 5:00 a.m. and onward the next day.

- 11.03
- (a) Overtime at the rate of time and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) the regular hourly rate will be payable for all hours worked in excess of their regularly scheduled number of hours on that day or forty (40) hours in a week for all full-time employees. Employees who are required to work on their scheduled day off shall work no less than four (4) hours.
 - (b) Overtime at the rate of one and one half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times the regular hourly rate will be payable for all hours worked on Statutory Holidays.

- (d) The Employer may call employees in to attend a staff meeting of up to two (2) hours duration not more than four times (4x) per calendar year. The Employer agrees that attendance at such meetings shall be voluntary. For clarity the rate payable for the attendance is at the straight time rate.
- (e) Employees working outside their scheduled shift must receive prior approval of the Owner or their designate in order to be paid for such time. It is understood the person providing such approval will advise the individual responsible for payroll of such approval.

11.04 During each work day, employees shall be granted two (2) rest periods with pay of fifteen (15) minutes in duration each and one (1) hour unpaid (one-half [$\frac{1}{2}$] hour by mutual consent) meal period, scheduled at the mid-point of each half shift and the mid-point of the daily shift. If mutually agreeable, the two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods may be combined. When an employee works in excess of three (3) hours over-time in which there is no meal period, the employee shall be entitled to receive a paid rest period of fifteen (15) minutes.

11.05 Employees will be allowed two (2) days off each week. Shop Stewards will be permitted to review employee requests for time off weekly. An employee's day off and their schedule of daily hours shall be posted not later than Friday at 9:00 a.m. of the previous week. The shop steward will be given a copy of work schedules upon request. Employee's meal periods shall be based on the commencement of their shift. Employees will be given three (3) working days' notice of changes in their regular working schedule, except for absences and where the employee and the Owner or designate mutually agree to the change.

The Employer is required to make a reasonable effort to verbally advise individual employees of changes to their work schedule once it has been posted.

11.06 Full-time employees may be designated to work up to three (3) evenings per week for customer shopping convenience after 6:00 p.m.

11.07 The Employer agrees that the store will not be open the evening of Christmas Eve, Christmas Day or the evening of New Year's Eve.

Employees who are off on compensation, accident or illness shall receive legal holiday pay if they have worked within fifteen (15) days of the holiday. They shall receive the difference between the legal holiday pay and what they otherwise receive from the Insurance Company and/or Workers' Compensation. - 13.05 Employees who have been employed for more than eighteen (18) years or more at January 1st shall be entitled to five (5) weeks' vacation with pay or ten (10%) whichever is greater.
- 13.06 The qualifying date for vacation entitlement shall be January 1st of the current year. The percentage payment referred to throughout this Article shall apply to wages earned during the previous calendar year excluding any vacation pay paid in respect of that period. Notwithstanding the above where an employee

When an employee has been absent for more than one (1) year they shall not be entitled to vacation pay regardless of the reason.

13.07 When a legal holiday as defined in Article 12 occurs during the employee's vacation period, the employee shall be entitled to receive either one (1) day's extra vacation or one (1) day's pay, as follows:

- (a) Wherever possible, the extra day is to be taken in conjunction with the vacation, at either the beginning or the end of the vacation period, i.e., Saturday preceding or Monday following.

- (d) Arrangements under this section are to be completed prior to the commencement of the vacation period.

13.08 The completed vacation schedule shall be posted on May 1st of each year. The Owner agrees that they will not change the vacation period of any employee unless unforeseen circumstances arise. Such changes shall be by mutual consent between the employee and the owner. Any employee who has not submitted their vacation plan by April 15th will only be permitted to book vacation at a time that will not interfere with another employee's vacation.

13.09 An employee who becomes disabled and is eligible for; and properly qualifies for; to the satisfaction of the carrier, Weekly Indemnity, while on vacation, excluding the first three days of sickness, if applicable, shall revert to Weekly Indemnity Benefits and the balance of their vacation will be held in abeyance and will be taken at a later time to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the employee.

14.01 The Employer agrees that it will continue to be enrolled under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act of British Columbia for all employees. The Employer will also pay an employee for the remainder of the shift in which the accident occurred that would require the employee to take time off.

ARTICLE 15 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

15.01 Either the Employer, the Union or any employee has a right to lodge a grievance with respect to any matter arising out of this Agreement or concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement.

15.02 Any employee believing that they have been unjustly dealt with or that the provisions of this Agreement have not been complied with, shall have the right to place such grievances in the hands of the Union for review and adjustment by the Employer, if necessary. Such grievances shall be processed as follows:

STEP 3: The grievance shall be forwarded to the Employer, which shall have one (1) week to dispose of the grievance. The disposition shall be in writing and returned to the officers of the Union. If considered necessary by the parties, a meeting may be held by the parties and may include the interested persons. If a meeting is held, the decision shall be given to the other party within seven (7) days from the date of the meeting.

15.03 In the case of a dismissal, a grievance may be filed by an employee who feels they were unjustly dealt with. Such grievance must be filed within five (5) working days from the date of dismissal and shall commence at STEP 2. In any subsequent disposal of this case during the grievance procedure, the Employer may re-instate the employee with full back pay, suspend the employee for a definite period or sustain the discharge.

15.04 Grievances concerning rates shall be handled in accordance with the above procedure and the disposition of such grievances, if sustained, shall include the determination of the effective date of the increase with retro-activity thereto.

15.05 The Employer and the Union may file grievances commencing at STEP 3.

15.06 (a) Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure, such grievance may be submitted to Arbitration, as hereinafter provided;

(b) The time limits as prescribed above may be modified by mutual agreement of the parties.

15.07 Should the grievance involve the misinterpretation or alleged violation of the Agreement, either party may be free to appeal to Arbitration from STEP 3 within thirty-one (31) days from the date the decision was given at this STEP. The party requesting Arbitration shall advise the party in writing of its request, together with a statement as to the issue to be arbitrated and shall include in its notice the names and addresses of three (3) Arbitrators. The other party shall within one (1) week of its receipt of the notice advise the other party if any of the three arbitrators is acceptable. If none of the original three (3) Arbitrators is acceptable the second party shall return the names and addresses of an additional three (3) Arbitrators. If the parties are unable to agree upon the selection of an Arbitrator, the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia shall be requested to appoint an Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall hear their dispute and the decision shall be final and binding upon the parties.

The Arbitrator shall not have any jurisdiction to alter or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, nor to make any decisions inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Each of the parties hereto share equally the expenses of the Arbitrator.

excess of thirty-two (32) hours per week, except as specified in Appendix "A", Article 2.05.

- (b) The Owner may require the employee to produce a medical certificate for absences of three (3) days or less from a duly qualified medical practitioner upon their return to work. Notes will only be requested where the absenteeism forms part of a pattern, is excessive or occurs under suspicious circumstances.

The Owner agrees to pay an employee the cost of medical documentation and/or certificates when requested by the Owner or any third party representing the Owner. For clarity, this is to cover, but it is not limited to return to work notes and insurance requests.

21.02 The Owner may grant leave of absence without pay to any employee for legitimate reasons. Such permission and request are to be in writing on the standard leave of absence request form four (4) weeks in advance, except in any emergency. The Owner's written reply to the request for leave of absence will be given within two (2) weeks, provided the Owner or their designate involved is not absent on vacation, sickness, etc., in which event the reply will be given within one (1) week following their return. When leave of absence is granted, there shall be no loss of seniority. A claim that the Owner withheld permission without justification may be the subject of a grievance and processed accordingly. Any leave of absence granted in conjunction with the employee's vacation will be deemed to follow their vacation period.

The Employment Standards Act of British Columbia shall govern maternity, paternity, family and adoption leaves.

For expanded leave of absence provisions and information see the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia (<https://www.bclaws.gov.bc.ca/>).

21.04 The Owner agrees that an employee appointed by the Union as a full-time representative shall be granted leave of absence without pay while serving in such capacity. Such persons shall continue to accumulate seniority while serving as Union representatives and shall be entitled to return to the bargaining unit should their service be terminated by the Union, with full accumulated seniority.

21.05 An Arbitrator dealing with a grievance involving discharge or loss of seniority of an employee resulting from an absence caused by a Court conviction/ incarceration (where the Owner has refused to grant leave of absence for such conviction/ incarceration) shall have the power to re-instate the employee with full seniority rights or by any other arrangements which is just in its opinion. In determining this question, the Arbitrator shall consider the nature of the offence for which the employee was convicted, the duration of the conviction/ incarceration, the length of service of the employee and their work record.

- 21.06
- (a) An employee who is required to serve on a jury shall be compensated for days actually spent on jury duty when they would, otherwise, have been at work to a maximum of ten (10) working days.
 - (b) The employee shall receive the difference between their jury fees and their normal day's pay for that time they would have been regularly employed had they not been serving on the jury. The employee shall be required to report immediately upon being excused or released from jury duty where such reporting is reasonable under the circumstances.
 - (c) The Claim of an employee shall be verified by presentation of their jury duty cheque; however, no payment shall be made for any hour for which the employee receives compensation by the Employer for any other reason. Payment shall not be withheld pending submission of the jury duty cheque.

- (f) In the event an employee is required to serve on jury duty during a week in which they would be normally scheduled to work on the night crew, they must notify the Owner immediately upon receiving the notice to serve so that they can be re-scheduled to the day shift.

21.07 Emergency leave will be granted in accordance with the Employment Standards Act. Paid bereavement leave will be counted as part of an employee's ten (10) days of emergency leave. For clarity, an employee may take paid bereavement leave in conjunction with any remaining emergency leave days.

21.08 Domestic Violence

The Employer recognizes that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal lives that may affect their attendance or performance at work. For that reason, and upon verification of the situation, the Employer will take reasonable steps to accommodate absences or performance issues arising directly from situations of violence or abuse that occur in the context of close personal relationships.

Verified absences, which are not otherwise covered by the terms of the collective agreement will be granted with permission without pay not to exceed two (2) months. Employees shall have the ability to fund these absences through paid time off they have accumulated under the collective agreement at the time of absence.

ARTICLE 22 – BEREAVEMENT PAY

22.01 In the event of death in the immediate family of an employee, the employee will be granted leave of absence with pay, with consideration given to travel time for attending the funeral. The length of absence shall be up to three (3) days at the discretion of the Employer. The term ‘immediate family’ shall mean: spouse, parent, child, siblings, step-parent, step-child, step-sibling, parent-in-law, sibling-in-law, child-in-law, grandparent, grandchildren, or any relative living in the household of the employee. In the event of the demise of a parents sibling, or siblings child, an employee will be granted one (1) day leave of absence with pay to attend the funeral.

In the case of death of spouse, parent, child, step-parent or step-child, the employee shall be entitled to, up to one (1) week leave of absence with pay.

Employees may “split” their three (3) days to cover off both bereavement and time to attend the funeral.

ARTICLE 23 – RETRO-ACTIVITY

23.01 No part of this Agreement shall be deemed retro-active unless specifically stated. All provisions contained in this Agreement, unless specifically stated to be retro-active in nature, are effective on the date of ratification.

ARTICLE 24 – NOT TO BE UNLAWFUL

- 24.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall require the Owner or the Union to take action which shall be unlawful by reason of any present or future statute, Order or Regulation of Canada or the Province of British Columbia.
- 24.02 The Owners agree to comply with all legislative requirements as per the Workers Compensation Act of British Columbia.

ARTICLE 25 – GENERAL

- 25.01 Where the obligation of the Owner and the Union to accommodate an employee via the Human Rights Act, may conflict with the terms and the provisions of the Collective Agreement, the Company and the Union may by mutual consent modify the Collective Agreement to meet the conditions of the accommodation of the employee.
- 25.02 Employees will be paid by a direct deposit payroll system. At the Employer's option a bi-weekly payroll may be introduced. Pay will be on Thursday or every other Thursday (if bi-weekly) except during the week of a statutory holiday.
- 25.03 A joint labour-management committee will be established which will meet upon request by either party. Retailer representatives and senior labour relations staff and senior union representatives may participate in these meetings.

ARTICLE 26 – SERVICE PROVIDERS

It is recognized that the Employer may decide from time to time to engage Service-providers on an ongoing basis to operate outlets or provide services within the company's store. These Providers may in some cases provide services in the store, such as fresh-fish counters, that formerly were provided by employees of No Frills; in other cases the services may be new to the store entirely.

It is understood that in all cases employees provided by the Service-providers to operate these outlets or provide services in the store are not, either directly or indirectly, employees of No Frills, and are not covered by the No Frills collective agreement.

ARTICLE 27 – TERM OF AGREEMENT

27.01 (a) This Agreement shall come into force and effect on November 12, 2023 the date of ratification and shall continue to the six (6) years later and shall thereafter be automatically renewed for the period of one (1) year unless either party, on written notice to the other, within a period of not more than ninety (90) days before the expiry date serves notice of intent to terminate or modify the Agreement.

- (b) In the event either party serves notice of a desire to negotiate changes into this Agreement as above set out, it is agreed that the Employer and the Union, without undue delay, shall begin negotiations on the proposed changes.

- (c) Pending the results of negotiations, neither party shall change the conditions existing under the Agreement.

APPENDIX "A" – PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

- 1.01 All matters relative to part-time employees and their working conditions shall be contained in Appendix A, and Article 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10.07, 10.08, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, and 27 of this Agreement.
- 1.02 The Employer, namely 15289581 Canada Ltd., doing business as Simran's No Frills, recognizes the United Food and Commercial Workers Canada, Local 247 as the sole and exclusive bargaining agency for all part-time employees.

ARTICLE 2 – SENIORITY

- 2.01 (a) Upon completion of ninety (90) days worked, employees covered by this Appendix shall be deemed to have served their probationary period and then shall be placed on the seniority list of part-time employees with their seniority date being established as their first day worked. It is understood between the Employer and the Union that a probationary employee shall be considered an employee for all purposes of the Agreement.
- (b) Employees shall obtain seniority on a store basis. The seniority list for part-time employees shall be posted and shall be updated at the end of March, and September of each calendar year.

- 2.02 (a) Seniority shall begin after the employee's probationary period has been served. Lay-offs and re-employment shall be based on seniority, availability, ability and qualifications to perform the work. Where a part-time employee becomes a full-time employee they will be required to serve the full-time probationary period and will be given a seniority credit of fifty (50%) percent of their part-time seniority up to a maximum of twelve (12) months, for wage progression purposes only, and they will be given the greater of their part-time rate or the rate which their full-time seniority credit gives them and they shall proceed from that point in the full-time wage progression. If for some reason the employee reverts to part-time during the probationary period, there will be no loss of seniority. The seniority rights of an employee shall be terminated after six (6) months following lay-off due to lack of work. In the event of an opening occurring in the full-time staff, employees covered under this Appendix shall receive preference for such full-time position providing they have the necessary seniority, ability and qualifications to perform the work. It is understood that any part-time employee promoted to a full-time position who does not successfully complete such probationary period shall be entitled to revert back to their part-time position with no loss of seniority or any other part-time rights under this collective agreement. It is also understood that any part-time employee promoted to full-time prior to completing their part-time probationary period shall be deemed to have completed such probationary period. It is understood that termination from full-time employment for cause (except reasons related to full-time probationary competency) shall not result in reversion to part-time employment.

- (b) Part-time employees are expected to attend work in accordance with their schedule of hours. When unable to attend, the employee must notify the Owner, or designate prior to their scheduled starting time, giving the reason why they are unable to attend.

2.03 Scheduling for Part-Time Employees

Definition of Anytime and Restricted Status

Each part-time employee will declare their availability and status at the time of their hire and throughout the course of their employment at the allotted times provided below. “Anytime” is defined as being available to work on all days of the week and all hours of the day. “Restricted” is defined as being anything less than available “Anytime”. There shall be no limit on the Employer’s right to hire new “Anytime” or “Restricted” employees at any time.

2.04 Scheduling of Employees

The weekly schedule of hours shall be created by department. Hours of work are scheduled according to availability, ability, qualifications and seniority with the understanding that all "Anytime" employees are scheduled in priority to "Restricted" employees.

The names of all "Anytime" employees within a department appear at the top of the schedule in order of seniority. "Anytime" employee names are followed by the names of all "Restricted" employees in order of seniority. In accordance with this scheduling system the most junior "Anytime" employee must receive as many or more hours than the most senior "Restricted" employee.

In assigning hours amongst "Anytime" employees no junior employee shall be scheduled more hours during a week than a senior employee provided that the employees hold the same ability and qualifications. A junior employee may be scheduled more hours during a week than a senior employee in the event that the junior employee possesses abilities and qualifications that the senior employee does not have.

In assigning hours amongst "Restricted" employees no junior employee shall be scheduled more hours during a week than a senior employee within the senior employee's availability provided that the employees hold the same ability and qualifications. A junior employee may be scheduled more hours during a week than a senior employee as a result of the junior employee working some shifts which are in whole or in part outside of the senior employee's availability or in the event that the junior employee possesses abilities and qualifications that the senior employee does not have.

The Employer shall determine the number and length of shifts and employees shall be assigned to those shifts at the Employer's discretion. The specific number of weekly hours assigned to employees is at the discretion of the Employer subject to the above two (2) paragraphs and to any applicable guarantees.

Any employee may be called in for any shift provided that this does not directly result in an employee receiving more total weekly hours than other employees that were scheduled who appear above them on the posted weekly schedule of hours.

In addition, any employee may be called in for any shift which employees above them on the schedule are not available for or are not qualified or able to perform the work regardless of the impact on total weekly hours.

Shift extensions of up to three (3) hours due to unforeseen circumstances will not result in a scheduling violation.

Part-time employees may swap and/or offer their existing scheduled or assigned work shifts to other part-time employees on a first-come-first-serve basis, and by mutual consent, subject to approval by the Department Manager or designate.

2.05 Availability

Part-time employees shall declare their availability four (4) times per year and shall be required to work according to their Declaration of Availability:

- 1) the last Sunday in December
- 2) the first Sunday in June
- 3) the third Sunday in August
- 4) one (1) other time in the calendar year (Floating Availability)

New Schedules will be effective:

- 1) the first Sunday in January
- 2) the last Sunday in June
- 3) the first Sunday in September
- 4) Schedule following the request provided the employee has submitted the request prior to the schedule being written.

Employees shall not exercise a floating availability change until the completion of their probationary period. An employee shall not be allowed to use a floating availability until a minimum of eight (8) weeks has elapsed since their last availability change, unless by mutual agreement between the Owner and employee concerned.

In addition to the above, Employees may increase their availability between November 15th and the end of the year.

The Employer may consider additional individual requests to change availability subject to business requirements as well as the current overall availability of the employees in the department.

Anytime employees may declare themselves unavailable for a period of up to six (6) consecutive hours and still be considered available anytime for scheduling purposes. The six (6) hour period must fall between 00:00 hrs Monday and 12:00 hrs Thursday and be in the same block of time each week. All employees exercising this option must do so at the time they declare their availability. The employer reserves the right to limit the number of six (6) consecutive hour blocks that may be declared during any particular time or day within a given department.

All restricted part-time employees must be available to work during at least two (2) six (6) hour blocks, on two (2) separate days, consistent with shifts in their department.

The Employer will make “Declaration of Availability” forms readily available to part-time employees. Employees who require a change in availability will submit, in person, a completed form to the Employer and the employee will be given a signed copy of the form at the time of submission. Provided the request is submitted Saturday by noon, the change will be reflected at the earliest, on the schedule posted the following Friday.

New employees shall be required to complete a "Declaration of Availability" form on or before their first day of work. An employee must not restrict themselves to the point that they are not available for normal scheduled shifts within the department.

2.06 Requested Day Off

Anytime employees may request up to two (2) consecutive days off at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the posting of the work schedule. Employees can make one (1) such request per month. The granting of this day off will be subject to operational requirements and will not be unreasonably withheld.

Senior Available Anytime employees may be eligible to receive a weekly guarantee of hours. Restricted employees shall not qualify to be scheduled under this section.

2.07 Guarantee of Hours for Senior Anytime Employees

- (i) Hours worked or paid, including General Holiday shall be considered as hours worked for the purpose of satisfying the minimum guarantees set forth in the chart below.

- (ii) Guarantees of hours are subject to the hours actually being available in the department and the Employer will not be required to create additional hours to satisfy guarantees.
- (iii) The number of employees entitled to a minimum guarantee of hours of twenty-eight (28), twenty-four (24), or twenty (20) hours is to be calculated according to the formula as specified in the chart below.

2.08 Transfers and Work Assignments

Part-time employees are scheduled and exercise their seniority within departments that are defined in each location by the Employer (example: Front End, Grocery, Produce, Meat). The name and number of departments may be changed by the Employer from time to time after providing employees and the Union thirty (30) days' notice.

Due to business needs, part-time employees may be required to temporarily perform work outside of their department from time to time. In addition, part-time employees may be moved to a new department at any time by mutual agreement between the Employer and employee. Part-time employees moved between departments will maintain their rate of pay and will carry their full seniority.

It is agreed and recognized by both the Union and the Employer that due to the nature of the Employer's business, it may be necessary to employ both full-time and part-time employees. Night crew employees are defined as employees who work exclusively night crew within a given week.

ARTICLE 3 – HOURS OF WORK

3.01 The regular working day shall consist of up to eight (8) hours or ten (10) hours where permissible by law for all employees. Part-time employees or a combination of part-time employees will not be used to the extent that they displace existing full-time employees or, except in the event of sales and/or profit declines, reduce the current level of full-time employees.
