ORTHODONTIA COVERAGE

You or your dependent must be currently eligible for dental benefits and have been eligible for dental benefits for a minimum of 12 months in the 30 months prior to the date the orthodontic service is rendered.

COMMON-LAW SPOUSES are eligible for coverage based on the following definitions:

1. The common-law spouses must publicly declare themselves as a husband and wife in a permanent relationship.
2. No more than one common-law spouse within a 12-month period. An employee cannot cover another common-law spouse until 12 months after the previous common-law spouse has been terminated from coverage. The onus is on the employee to notify the Plan in writing when a common-law spouse is to be added or deleted from coverage.

IMPORTANT

ABSENCE from work for any reason may result in cancellation of your eligibility. Please read the following:

An employee who ordinarily is eligible for dental benefits but who would lose their eligibility by reason of receiving Weekly Indemnity, or Workers' Compensation time loss benefits, E.I. Medical, E.I. Compassionate Leave or Maternity/Parental Benefits, shall be credited with the hours that they would have worked during such period upon receipt of proof of wage loss. The approval for extension of benefits is to be granted by the Trustees or by the Administrator on behalf of the Trustees.

Coverage cannot be maintained while receiving Long Term Disability Benefits.
